Online Suturing Course

Content of the course:

- Theories and concepts of stitching
- Practical exercises to improve surgical suturing
- Learning of different knotting techniques
- How to face the difficulties of surgery

Laparoscopic suturing is an essential skill for all surgical disciplines. Therefore, together with the MIS Academy Europe and ID Trust Medical, KARL STORZ offers a brand new Online Suturing Course.

During five days a professional instructor will provide you with three hours daily personal training. With the GESEA E-Knot trainer, which you will receive for permanent use, this is possible to do at any location.

This totally new E-learning model has been developed by the MIS Academy under the lead of Prof. A. Wattiez and Dr. R. Campo.
